

I am going to have the students arrange their binary cards in the sequence that matches the decimal number/letter I put on the board. I will then have them work with their elbow partner and challenge one another and then communicate using only binary or decimal numbers.