

U2 Challenge - Reflection Questions

As you work on your challenge reflect on the process and prepare to share your insights with other teachers. This page is for writing down notes. You should capture your responses on the 1 Page Overview Template.

Question & Reflection Notes

What did you enjoy about this lesson?

It was hands on, required students to work together.

What was difficult about this lesson?

Sometimes group members would take over.

U2 Challenge - Reflection Questions

What are you worried about when you use this lesson in class?

I was worried about the timing of the lesson. How much for each topic. . .

What resources or materials are needed for this lesson?

Blocks, PPT explanation.

How is problem solving emphasized in this lesson?

Not necessarily a direct path to the solution.

Explain the main concept of the lesson.

Extend a solution from a minimal number of variables to n number of variables.

U2 Challenge - Reflection Questions

What are some good existing resources for this lesson?

CS Unplugged, videos online.

Why did you create your chosen resource? OR
How did you find your chosen resource?

We used it at training and it worked well. I made a few modifications.

How can your extension resource be used?

Incorporate other modalities.

Any other insights about the lesson you wish to share?

Not at this time.